Editorial Review

"The Fundamentalist is a realistic and gripping glimpse into the world of crime and justice in Detroit, Michigan, and its surrounding suburbs. With colorful characters and a relatable setting, Gerald Curtis pens a smart and conceivable plot, preserving the interest of the reader from start to finish. Having taken the time to carefully introduce and emphasize the importance of each piece to the puzzle throughout the tale, he crafts a suspense-filled finale, bringing each piece together at the end in a brilliant showdown. An unexpected final twist will appease the reader and provide needed closure to the chaotic sequence of events, which make The Fundamentalist an action-filled adventure right up to the last line of text."
